Two Services

What is happening?

On January 12, the Unitarian Church of Lincoln will begin a new Sunday schedule, with worship services at 9:00AM and 11:00AM.

- The 9:00AM service will be a 45-minute long contemplative service, including a new Joys and Sorrows ritual, and more time for congregational meditation and singing.
- The 11:00AM service will more closely resemble our current service, but some additional elements, including more music from outside our hymnals, projecting the announcements and order of service, and changing the order of some of the pieces of music.

Why is this happening now?

This is the culmination of a year-long process of study, proposal, tinkering and congregational votes, that culminated in our congregational meeting in December. Our Sunday morning attendance is consistently at or slightly above capacity for our space, and taking this step will give us room for what we want to do and who we want to be as a community.

What does this mean for Religious Education?

Based on feedback from our parents and the RE committee, our primary religious education programming will move to the 11:00AM service, and retain its current structure regarding classrooms, curricula, and volunteers.

During the 9:00AM service, the committee and RGL Director are starting a program called Chalice Connections. Chalice Connections is an opportunity for members of the congregation to share an activity or topic they are passionate about with our children, building relationship across generations.

Middle Hour

We will have the unique opportunity to have everyone together between services for fellowship time. Some Sundays this will be solely socializing and coffee, other Sundays there will be programing offered such as a speaker or short workshop.

How can I help?

Volunteer! As we expand our offerings, we also will naturally expand our volunteering opportunities. If you’ve ever thought about serving as an usher, or a worship associate, or helping with religious education, or any of the many roles that go into making Sunday morning special, now is a great time to get involved.

I’m excited! I wonder if we could try ______?

So am I! This is a chance to try new things, to open up how and when we worship, and eventually to widen our community. While we will almost certainly have some things go wrong in the next few months, many people have put many hours into planning this transition, and there are a lot of pieces to be excited about. This is a place of transformation, and sometimes that transformation is more literal than spiritual!

Rev. Oscar Sinclair, Minister
January Worship Services
Unitarian Church of Lincoln

Sunday, January 5 - “Deep Time”
As we grow older, our perspective on time grows longer. Summers once endless pass in a blur. Let’s try to stretch further our vision of time until it encompasses both the deep past and the deep future.

Worship Leader: Jamie Radcliffe  Worship Associate: Becky Seth
Traditional Service 10:00AM

Sunday, January 12 - “Change”
“Our covenant, as a welcoming congregation, is to inspire a sense of awe, joy and reverence in people of all ages. We celebrate through words, music and the arts… We cultivate growth and celebrate the changes growth brings.” Join us as we begin our new Sunday schedule, celebrating the changes growth brings, and looking forward to the coming year.

Worship Leader: Rev. Oscar Sinclair  Worship Associate: Sändra Washington
Contemplative service 9:00AM  Soulful Sunday 11:00AM

Thursday, January 16 - TBA
Worship Leader: Rev. Oscar Sinclair  Worship Associate: Christine Davis
Third Thursday service 7:00PM

Sunday, January 19 - “White Lies”
In 1965, the Rev. James Reeb was murdered in Selma, Alabama. The case has remained unresolved for over 50 years. Investigations this year started to uncover what happened on that March night in Alabama.

Worship Leader: Rev. Oscar Sinclair  Worship Associate: Mary K Stillwell
Contemplative service 9:00AM  Soulful Sunday 11:00AM

Sunday, January 26 - “TBA”
Worship Leader: Christine Davis  Worship Associate: Charlie Ahern
Contemplative service 9:00AM  Soulful Sunday 11:00AM
We hope everyone has a wonderful holiday season and a happy new year!

The Sinclairs
Oscar, Stacie, Ailish
During our Thanksgiving Bread Communion service last month, we asked you to write down something which you are grateful to have in your life. It was an absolute joy to go through these small slips of paper and be reminded of my love for this community for the millionth time. Here is a smaller list of some of what you all wrote...

- For this church and all of nature’s beauty
- Family friends pets health food shelter
- This congregation
- A family that accepts me even though we don’t often agree. A best friend
- Grateful to hold onto hope for a happier tomorrow
- Singing again
- Being a dad
- For blue life preservers in a red sea
- Family, health, my lucky stars
- Air, soil and water. Plants. Animals. Family and friends
- Love – may the circle be unbroken
- Good health and comfortable life and my family
- I am thankful for ninja masters – Hi Ya
- Quiet moments
- Love, acceptance, dreams, family, ACLU, passion, hope, life, support
- Sharp pencils, clean glasses, dogs, music
- Thankful for wonderful books
- The place of peace love and support aka my life now, growth and change
- A sunny day
- Mother earth….let’s stop destroying this incredible gift!
- Happiness in a cold time
- Friends that make my days brighter and full of laughter
- The love I had for 45 years….for Oscar Sinclair
- I am thankful for the chance to grow
- My dog
- The unwavering acceptance and love of my life’s greatest companion and love
- Music
- Love, family, books, music, humor
- Community, gratitude, home, church
- Those who are willing to risk themselves to speak truth to power

This month, we move to doing two services. Our Sunday School Programming will take place at both 9:00AM and 11:00AM, with 11:00AM being our ‘typical’ classes as you have previously known them. Our 9:00AM programming is called “Chalice Connections.” We need many people from our church to step up to lead just one or two sessions in a church year. Share what you are grateful for with our children. Share what lights a fire within you. Share a talent, a love, a joy in your life. Connect something about yourself with our principles and values and bring it to the classroom. The lesson does not need to be too much. We are focusing more on relationships than anything else. Take just the time during one 9:00AM service to connect with some interested young people. To learn more, please contact me: religiousgrowth@unitarianlincoln.org

Peace, Faith, and Love,
UCL Choir in 2020
From Julie Enersen

Are you resolved to join the UCL Choir in the new year? The links and dates below may be helpful in meeting that resolution.

The UCL Choir performs approximately once a month through June and is open to anyone who likes to sing, is somewhat comfortable reading music, and is interested in lending time and talent to the worship life of our church. You can choose to sing whatever part is most comfortable for you...we do not assign singers to vocal parts based on gender. Every month, the UCL Choir rehearses on the two Wednesdays prior to their appearance at a service. Rehearsal tracks are also shared with singers as an additional resource to those who like to practice on their own between rehearsals.

To be subscribed to the UCL mailing list, contact the UCL Choir Director Julie Enersen at choir@unitarialincoln.org

To view the UCL Choir calendar, go to bit.ly/ViewUCLChoirCal

And mark your calendar for the following dates:

- January 15, 22 - 7:00PM - 8:30PM rehearsal
- January 26, 9:30AM rehearsal for 11:00AM service
- February 12, 19 - 7:00PM - 8:30PM rehearsal
- February 23, 9:30AM rehearsal for 11:00AM service
- March 11, 18 - 7:00PM - 8:30PM rehearsal
- March 22, 9:30AM rehearsal for 11:00AM service
- April 15, 22 - 7:00PM - 8:30PM rehearsal
- April 26, 9:30AM rehearsal for 11:00AM service
- May 6, 13 - 7:00PM - 8:30PM rehearsal
- May 17, 9:30AM rehearsal for 11:00AM service
- June 14, 10:00AM One-Hour Choir rehearsal for 11:00AM service

UUA Bookstore Featured Book

Emergent Strategy - Shapng Change, Changing Worlds by Adrienne Maree Brown.

Inspired by Octavia Butler's explorations of our human relationship to change, this is radical self-help, society-help, and planet-help designed to shape the futures we want. The world is in a continual state of flux. Rather than steel ourselves against such change, we are invited to feel, map, assess, and learn from the swirling patterns around us to better understand and influence them as they happen. This is a resolutely materialist “spirituality” based equally on science and science fiction, a visionary incantation to transform that which ultimately transforms us. Available at the church office for $16.00.

Calling All UCL Mystery Lovers!

From Dorothy Ramsey

Are you a closet genealogist? Are you an avid historian? Do you like mysteries???

We have a real live mystery here at the church office and you may know the answer!

The lovely long wooden table in the front of the lobby has been used here for at least a decade. Often decorated with a gorgeous runner or flowers, it has greeted visitors and members alike with welcome. It was recently turned upside down for routine maintenance, and many artifacts fell out from hidden places!! Do any of these ring a bell for you: the names Ellery Davis, N. H. Cornwell, an address on Van Dorn, one in London, England, a news clipping of an article by Jeffery Farnol in the Lincoln Star or a receipt from Miller & Paine for 200 postcards ($2.00) which was charged on Feb. 25, 1953? Other artifacts included. Call the church office to propel these artifacts to their rightful owner.
Showing Up for Social Justice

This month we:

Wrote 13 letters to governments in Belarus, Iran, South Sudan, Greece, the Philippines, Mexico, Canada, and Egypt on behalf of women who have suffered severe human rights violations and 4 letters in solidarity with the violated women. Thanks to all who took the time to support these women and human rights.

Monthly Meeting

Wednesday, January 15 • 7:00PM

Guest speaker is not booked. Join us to see which local non-profit we will learn about this month. All are welcome to join us for this presentation and then leave or join us for the business portion of the meeting, which goes till 8:30PM.

Upcoming Events

Write Here! Write Now!

Sunday, January 12, 19 • Middle Hour
• Gallery

We will write to Senators Fischer and Sasse urging them to pass legislation to create a pathway to citizenship for immigrants with Temporary Protected Status (TPS) and similar standing such as Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) and Deferred Enforced Departure (DED). This is part of a special Migrant Justice nationwide letter-writing event in partnership with the UU Service Committee. Join us between services to write your letter or write it at home and bring it on Sunday. As always, talking points will be provided.

Ecumenical Legislative Briefing

Sunday, February 6

A flyer will be posted on the kiosk and sent to Social Justice Friends in January.

UCL Welcomes New Members

From Kelly Ross, Member & Admin Coordinator

The Unitarian Church of Lincoln welcomed five new members on December 8, 2019. From left: John Riley, Sarah Schmitt, Sabrina Pinnix, Jan James, and Karee Shonerd.

Living and Sharing Your Beliefs

From Lori Straatmann, Trustee

Have you ever noticed that there are certain things you do that bring particular joy and add meaning to your life? I know that when I am working on creating clay pots, I feel closer to our Mother Earth and to the people for whom I am creating these pots. What things do you do that provide that feeling of interconnected web-ness? I bet you love to talk about those activities; I know I do! So why not take advantage of a new audience and share something about those activities with the future leaders of our congregation? Offer to share those activities and feelings of relationship during a Chalice Connections session for our youth.

The Straatmanns and Pelters are teaming up to connect working in clay with relationships in our church community this month for a 9:00AM session of Chalice Connections. We’d love to see what other activities are happening in our congregation that provide food for the soul and connections to one another. What say you? I know you have something worth sharing! Let Chelsea Krafka religiousgrowth@unitarianlincoln.org know that you would like to join in the fun.
Member Loan Repayment News

From Mary Sommermeyer

Payments on Cole match pledges have been sufficient to allow for payment of the $15,000 member loan that was due 3-17-20. The church is now debt-free!!

The $355.48 interest due on the loan was covered by funds carried over at the end of the capital campaign. The $15,000 principal was covered by three sources: money left to the church by long-time member Judy Cole that was designated by the congregation for this purpose, Cole match income, and carried-over capital campaign funds.

Many thanks to the people who have been paying off Cole match pledges and to the people who made unpledged contributions to matching Judy Cole’s money.

If you have any questions, contact Mary Sommermeyer, soon-to-be-retired Special Vice Treasurer for Member Loans, 402.489.8213 or mesommer13@gmail.com.

Fresh Start Volunteering Feeds Residents and Cooks!

From Michael Reinmiller

The Unitarian Church of Lincoln cooks at Fresh Start on the 2nd Sunday of every month. We cook everything from soul food to soups!

Fresh Start is a transitional shelter for homeless women in Havelock that serves 24 women at a time. We are looking for more volunteers to help out. If you are interested or have questions, please reach out to Michael Reinmiller avdude@me.com.

We usually serve dinner at 6:00PM and sit and eat with the residents and share stories. We help clean up and are usually out within an hour and a half. The food is good and the conversation is even better!

Coffee Klatch and Coffee Training

Saturday, January 25 • 10:00AM - 12:00PM • Gallery

If you are interested in learning the ins and outs of Sunday Morning Coffee Service as we move to two services each Sunday, you won’t want to miss the Coffee Klatch and Training Session. We’ll go over the process and procedures for ensuring our fellow church-goers are sufficiently caffeinated (or decaf or tea as the case may be) on Sunday morning. Then we will enjoy that newly made coffee (and decaf and hot water for tea) with brunch-like treats and get to know each other better, as any good Coffee Klatch does. And THEN we will go over the process and procedure for doing the dishes by doing the dishes. If you are interested in attending and feel inspired to bring a brunch-like treat yourself, feel free. If you have any questions about this event, contact Coffee Klatch Coach Kathy Disney at kedisney62@gmail.com or 402.560.0358. All are welcome!

Zen Workshop

Saturday, January 11 • 9:30AM - NOON • Gallery

"Calm Down, Awake Up: Introduction to Zen Meditation"- a workshop presented by Dosho Port Roshi of the Nebraska Zen Center in Omaha will be presented. No registration, no fee, just show up; donations welcome.

You will leave knowing the essentials of Zen meditation, including how to work with body, breath, and mind. We will discuss the common major hurdles when establishing a meditation practice AND how to overcome them. We will also practice seated and walking meditation. There will be time for questions. This session is for you if you are new to Zen meditation, want a refresher, and/or have meditation experience in another tradition.
Green Corner

Climate Change Warning

In 2017 we were warned again. People need to turn the tide of the world’s carbon dioxide emissions by 2020 (www.mission2020.global). Between 1990 and 2017, CO₂ emissions from fossil fuel combustion had increased 3.7% in the U.S. alone (EPA).

Recently, there has been some good news about climate actions. Young people across the world are sending strong, effective messages. Use of renewable energy is growing as the cost declines. Goldman Sachs is now blocking funding for coal and Arctic drilling. However, the news is mostly bad. The dire effects of our warming world are greater and coming faster than predicted. We are running out of time!

During this New Year we need to support action on climate change more urgently than ever. The Green Sanctuary Committee will keep you informed of opportunities for advocacy and ideas for lowering our individual carbon footprint or paying the real cost of what we do.

Air travel is a major source of harmful greenhouse gas emissions. While many of us are fortunate enough to be able to travel and deeply value being with family and the richness that travel brings, flights emit lots of carbon. An article by Rick Steves outlines his company’s Climate Smart Commitment. He offers a list of charities they support to offset environmental damage incurred, along with reasons they have chosen these organizations. (http://www.ricksteves.com/about-us/climate-smart/portfolio).

UUA Common Read Discussion

From Mark Weddleton

An Indigenous Peoples’ History of the United States book discussion series will be held in three sessions on Saturdays in the new year: January 11, 25, and February 15 from 3:00PM to 4:30PM by the fireplace at the church. The book by Roxanne Dunbar-Ortiz is the 2019-2020 UUA Common Read. The series is open to the public. Participants will get the most out of the discussion if they’ve read the book ahead of time.

Nine people met on November 30 for an initial discussion. They were impressed with the vibrant Indigenous nations that existed across the continent prior to the European invasion, millions of people living with extensive trade routes, diverse cultures and sustainable resource management practices.

The dominant mythology of the United States seeks to marginalize these Indigenous nations, justify the brutal genocidal conquest of their land and erase their presence today. Participants agreed upon the need to take responsibility for the harmful role Unitarians played in this settler colonialism and to act to build right relationship with Native peoples.

The series will culminate with action to learn about and support the projects and priorities of the Ponca, Sioux, Omaha and other Indigenous people in our community, including efforts to put an end to the epidemic of Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls.

In December, Bluestem let us know they had a pretty major flu outbreak - half their kids were out that day. They bleached down everything, and called the health department to see if they needed to close the next day. For the safety and well-being of all who are in our building, please stay home and listen to the podcast if you think you might have the flu. We want you back as soon as you are well!
Important Anniversaries Ahead - We Need a Plan! - and Planners!

Thursday, January 30 • 6:00PM • Gathering Place

The Unitarian Church of Lincoln has two significant anniversaries approaching – in 2020 we have the 150th anniversary of the founding of the Universalist Society in Lincoln and in 2023 we have the 125th anniversary of the founding of All Soul's Church (which would become the Unitarian Church of Lincoln). Commemorating these events and our church’s place in the history of Lincoln, Nebraska and beyond could take many forms – and likely will! Celebrating our history is an important part of church life and this is the chance to shine a light on the whole journey from 1870 to the present. What sort of events and projects will make up these commemorations? Help us figure it out! Childcare will be provided. If you have ideas for ways to celebrate these church milestones and particularly if you are interested in bringing those ideas to fruition, please consider attending. This will be the first of many opportunities for input and volunteering, so if you are unable to attend but want to be a part of planning or if you have any questions, contact Kathy Disney at kedisney62@gmail.com or Fritz Hudson at fhudson3@gmail.com. We hope to see you there!

Friendly Faces Over 80!

From Jackie Egan and Shirley Maly

The 85+ group is scheduled to meet Jan. 9 in the Library (second Thursday at 10:00AM to 11:30AM). Our smiling faces have shared good things and new challenges. We now welcome those 81 or over since you’re just beginning to find independence isn’t as easy as you thought. Aging isn’t for sissies, as they say. We jaw about experiences that may work for others who want to be independent. Our biggest one now is transportation. If you want to join us January 9, call Shirley Maly, 402.477.6787 or Jackie Egan 402.435.6111. Perhaps you’re a solution!

Join the AV Committee!

From Keith McGuffey

The AV Committee has about ten members who work to make our services accessible for every visitor. We’re there to make sure every Sunday is seen and heard. This includes assisting with the Time for All Ages, handing out listening devices for those with hearing disabilities, and making sure the services are heard throughout the building.

As our services expand, we could use some help, and more hands means less work!

AV isn’t about having a wealth of technical knowledge. You don’t need to know decibel ranges or media outputs, just have a willingness to learn. There are folks on the committee who are AV professionals and others who had never touched a mixing board before volunteering.

Our AV team runs in tandems – an ‘A’ person who manages sound levels, and a ‘V’ person who runs the projector and records the service. You won’t be alone. We’ll have you shadow our processes until you’re comfortable signing up to do them yourself, and you will still have a partner to help you out during service.

Doing AV is a great way to live out our principals. By making services accessible, we respect the inherent worth of every person attending and encourage their spiritual growth and search for truth and meaning. It’s also a great place for introverts. You won’t have to greet strangers, make them coffee, or collect money from them. You’re also guaranteed one of the best seats in the house on a raised platform overlooking the congregation.

If you are interested in volunteering, stop by one of our meetings (typically on the fourth Sunday of the month – please check the church calendar) or swing by the AV cabinet in the southwest corner of the sanctuary before or after service and chat with one of our volunteers. We look forward to working with you!
