Ordination “Location Location Location”

Sunday, June 17 • 3:30PM • 20th & D
Worship Leader: Rev. Dr. Natalie Fenimore, Unitarian Universalist Congregation, Shelter Rock

There is meaning and purpose in where we choose to “locate” ourselves – as Jesus, Buddha, & Muhammad also put themselves in particular “locations” and with particular peoples (those in need, those outcast, those questioning). Choosing to come together in a faith community is a turning towards a particular meaning and purpose – a coming into the place of our UU values. We joyfully celebrate the coming together in this “location” by your congregation.

Oscar Sinclair started his process to become a minister in 2011. The Unitarian Church of Lincoln started preparation for a new minister in 2014, after Minister Emeritus Rev. Fritz Hudson retired. Last June, we voted to call Oscar as our settled minister. Fortunately he accepted!

Our tradition holds that only a local society can ordain a person to the ministry. Oscar honored us by asking if our congregation would ordain him. Again, we took a vote and the answer was YES! We are pleased to participate in this final step of Oscar’s journey to become a minister. During the same ceremony, we will install Oscar Sinclair as minister of the Unitarian Church of Lincoln.

Highlights of this special day include meeting ministers who have been important to Oscar. First, at the Sunday morning service, listen to Rev. David Carl Olson from Oscar's home church in Baltimore. Later at the ordination, consider the message of Rev. Natalie Fenimore from Shelter Rock where Oscar served as an Intern Minister.

We need you to RSVP and Volunteer. Survey LINK (https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/9XMT9HH)
Sunday, June 3 - “Flower Communion”

First practiced in Prague in the 1920s, the Unitarian practice of Flower Communion is a ritual to remind us of our interconnection with each other and with the beauty of the natural world. As is our practice, we will also take time to recognize the work our dedicated staff and volunteers do throughout the year to keep this church a place of beauty and transformation.

Worship Associates: Staff
Music: UCL Adult Choir

Sunday, June 10 - “Bridging”

As our congregational year comes to a close, we mark the transitions of the year: those who have joined us by choice and by birth, those who have died, and those who are transitioning from youth to young adulthood. Each of us are blessed by the people in this place, and each of us bring our own blessing to the community.

Worship Leader: Oscar Sinclair
Worship Associate: Sändra Washington
Music: TBD
Share the Care: LGBTQA Welcoming Congregation Committee

Sunday, June 17 - “Likeness to God”

Two hundred years ago, William Ellery Channing preached an ordination sermon in Baltimore, and in doing, so marked the beginning of American Unitarianism. Channing wrote that the Good, Beautiful, and True revealed in our lives is a way in which we reveal divinity.

Worship Leader: Rev. David Olson, First Unitarian Church of Baltimore
Worship Associate: Oscar Sinclair
Music: UCL Choir

Sunday, June 24 - “General Assembly Streaming”

Each year over 3000 Unitarian Universalists gather for our annual conference and denominational meeting, called General Assembly. In recent years, the Unitarian Universalist Association has begun streaming the proceedings and worship services of GA online, and on June 24 we will join (remotely) in the closing worship of the 2018 General Assembly in Kansas City.

Worship Leader: Susan Grey, UUA President
Worship Associate: Jesse Metcalf
Music: General Assembly Choir and Hymns
In May, I spent a week in Boston attending the annual first year ministers’ seminar. Sitting in small groups of colleagues, we shared about our years, the churches we serve, the challenges and opportunities we see at the end of our first year in these places. Two days into the seminar a friend pulled me aside and said “Oscar, you need to stop sounding apologetic for how good your year has been.”

Ministry is joyful work, and it is at times hard work, and it can go from one to the other incredibly fast, but the truth is this first year in Lincoln has felt like a blessing. The work we are doing together at the church is exciting and engaging, our lay and staff leadership are strong, Stacie and I welcomed our daughter Ailish into the world, and there’s an almost palpable sense of possibility at the year and years to come. This is the kind of first year of ministry folks in my line of work dream of.

It feels right, then, that our last monthly theme for this congregational year is blessing. Blessings come in many forms.

Rev. Peter Friedrichs writes:

…I know what a blessing smells like, too: The head of your month-old niece, thrust into your arms by your dead-tired sister who wants nothing more than a few hours of uninterrupted sleep; and the aroma of fresh-baked bread that catches you off-guard as you walk past a bakery, head bowed against the cold, and grief, on the way to your grandmother’s funeral.

A blessing tastes like the cherry popsicles you used to split with your dad on the front stoop just before bedtime in summer, when the light was soft and the pavement still hot under your toes…

Each moment we spend together is in some way a blessing. Whether this has been a joyful year for you or a hard one (or both!), know that your participation in the work of this church is a blessing to us all.

In faith,
Oscar (and Stacie and Ailish)
Last Month’s RE Sunday (Switcheroo Day)

You may have heard about our fabulously chaotic Sunday which corresponded with the Lincoln Marathon Day. We had a marathon Sunday of our very own. On May 6, we did something this church has never done before (we are pretty sure). Adults attended classes and children went to the worship service!!!

The idea stemmed from a thought which Oscar and I had last year during Candidating Week. We thought about ways which the adults could learn more about our Sunday School program and how children could know more about what happens during a worship service and - voila- a light bulb went on over our heads. A year and a lot of planning later, we had our Religious Education Sunday.

The day was a bit chaotic but seemed to go over quite well. We invited adults to pick a class to attend and children enjoyed a sermon with the theme of mindfulness and the musical talent of Chris Sayre. We also tied in a plea to sign up to volunteer in our Sunday School program. The Religious Growth and Learning committee will continue to do recruitment throughout the summer with training being offered in August and September. A huge thank-you to the fabulous volunteers who helped make this event work and to all the members and friends who participated.

Peace, Faith and Love, Chelsea Krafka

Sunday School Clean-Up

Sunday, June 10 • 11:15AM • RGL Hallway

We will be cleaning up the Sunday School classes in preparation for Oscar’s Ordination weekend. Please join us and help out! If you are willing to show up, please contact Chelsea - Director of Religious Growth - religiousgrowth@unitarianlincoln.org

We will meet after service in the Sunday School area near the supply closet in the hallway.

Thank you!

Summer Ingathering Plans - - -

During the summer we have a ‘one-room schoolhouse’ type of classroom set-up. Children K-5th grade join in the Gathering Place. Preschool and nursery are still offered for our youngest UUs.

Middle and High Schoolers are invited to join service or to attend the Ingathering as helpers. Middle and High School students might also inquire about our Coming of Age program where they are paired with a mentor to explore more about UUism. Please see Chelsea for more details religiousgrowth@unitarianlincoln.org
SUMMER MUSIC NEWS!

It has certainly been a season of change on the music side of things here at the church! I have been so thankful for the support of the musicians, singers, and staff who have helped make these transitions much smoother. I will be the interim Music Coordinator through the end of the year; it’s been so much fun serving the congregation in this capacity.

A special thank you to the choir for their beautiful performance at the Mother’s Day Service! The choir will be performing three selections on June 3 for Flower Communion, and three pieces on June 17 for Oscar’s ordination.

It’s a busy time and we’d love to EXPAND the group! We are actively seeking folks who might be interested in singing with us for ordination. If you’ve been interested in choir but worried about making a long-term schedule commitment, this one-time performance opportunity might be for you.

The choir will rehearse May 23 and 30 as well as June 6 and 13. The June rehearsals will be focused on ordination, so if you’re interested in joining us please let me know!

Our church community is blessed with a lot of great talent, and great supporters of the arts. If you’ve run across a musician or group you’d like to hear perform at church, send me their info and I will check them out. We are actively looking to build upon the already great roster of musicians that perform at our Sunday services, and any suggestions would be greatly appreciated.

In that spirit, mark your calendars for August 19. I will be giving the sermon (and performing) on the topic of jazz as democracy. A few of you have suggested a jazz service and here it is!

Enjoy the warm weather!

All the best,

Bob Fuson,

Interim Music Coordinator

Spring Congregational Meeting: Many Successful Votes!

RUMMAGE SALE

Not Cancelled - Just Postponed

In order to keep the building looking pristine, and to put our energies toward making Oscar’s ordination a wonderful event, the Rummage Sale will not be the last week of May but is postponed until the end of July. So mark July 30, 31 and August 1 as our collection days for rummage sale items and our sale will be August 2, 3 and 4. Look in your July Newsletter for more information.

Bluestem Montessori Elementary

We took advantage of the lovely weather in April and held our Jam Sessions outside. We talked about how playing instruments in a group is just like having a conversation. You can’t talk over anyone else and you need to listen as well as talk. Translation: When you are playing an instrument with a group you can’t play louder than anyone else, and you need to all follow the same rhythm.

Some of our students have been getting lessons on the Decanomial Square. The Decanomial Square is a first journey into the times tables. Students lay out bead bars 101 all the way up to 10010. By doing this work students become acquainted with algebraic patterns and can begin to memorize the times tables. Our younger students have also been using our 1,000 bead chain to count to 1,000.

Bluestem is excited to participate with Montessori schools across the US in the Great American Mail Race this year. The goal is to send a letter to each state in America and respond to all the letters we receive. This is a great way for students to learn about another state, practice their writing skills, and make a new friend. Our younger students have been encouraged to draw a picture and have a teacher or older student help them write a letter. We have officially written to all 50 states!

Check out our Facebook page www.facebook.com/bluestemmontessori or our website www.bluestemmontessori.com for more information about Montessori philosophy and our school.
OUTSIDE

FROM MARTHA HORVAY

Thank you to the many volunteers who helped make the spring grounds cleanup a success, by clearing away winter debris, or by contributing food and labor to the potluck lunch. We have a head-start on the weeds, and now we begin the season's maintenance. Keeping the grounds beautiful relies on many helping hands throughout the season.

Consider joining the Grounds Task Force by agreeing to take care of an area of the grounds. The area can be very small, or as large as you like. Volunteers can work individually, in pairs, or in groups, on your own schedule. There are no meetings to attend, and the task force coordinator is available to answer gardening questions (to the best of her ability). The church has gardening tools, although some volunteers prefer to bring their own. The pre-school playground and the parking lot shrubbery are two zones that are currently in need of caretakers.

INSIDE

FROM HARRY HEAFER AND THE BUILDING COMMITTEE

On June 10, beginning after service, the Building Committee is asking for volunteers to help with a building-wide clean up and shine up, interior and exterior, in preparation for Oscar’s Ordination Reception scheduled for June 17. With many visitors to our building, we want to have all areas orderly and uncluttered, clean of dust and cobwebs, windows washed, exterior cobwebs removed, etc. Supplies will be provided but you’re welcome to bring dusting items, window washing items, rubber gloves if you wish to wear any, etc. Thank you.

Note from the office: We had the Auditorium/Sanctuary stripped and waxed in May. Please do not ever slide chairs across the floor. The heavier chairs make deep visible marks. Ask if you do not know where the chair mover is located. We also are having the carpets cleaned the first week of June, so be mindful of how full you fill your coffee cups.

UU GALLERY ARTIST THERESÉ BAUER

I hope you enjoy this collection of paintings I call “Colors of Life.” My paintings are an expression of joy, happiness, love of nature, the wonders created by man and most importantly, love of life.

I work in mixed media, having the most fun creating with acrylic paint. I like to experiment with a variety of subject matter from landscapes to cityscapes. My whimsical approach is expressed also in the floral and abstracts I am inspired to create.

Some of my work are planned and well thought out ideas while some paintings are a spontaneous connection of brush to canvas. I am guided by the subject matter and my creative energy in the moment.

My ultimate goal is to have created special paintings that you can connect with and some that will bring you joy, peace and happiness. Please visit the Noyes Art Gallery, 119 S. 9th St. to see more of my collection.

Educational Lecture

Nebraska’s Climate • June 7 • 7:00PM

Please join us for the second in the series of educational lectures co-sponsored by the Green Sanctuary Committee and our partner, the Nebraska Conservation Education Fund.

Dr. Martha Shulski, Nebraska State Climatologist, will be speaking on "Nebraska’s Climate" Thursday, June 7 at 7:00PM in the Sanctuary. Mark your calendars for July 19 when Dr. Wu Smart, UNL Entomologist, will talk on "Climate and Insects."

Wachiska Audubon General Meeting

Thursday, June 14 • 7:00PM

"An Introduction to and Anecdotes from the Birds of Nebraska – Online" by Joel Jorgensen and Ross Silcock, Nebraska Game and Parks Commission.

Nebraska has a rich history of bird study that extends over two centuries. Documenting and describing all this changing information into hard copy volumes is now being done online. With the Birds of Nebraska — Online, Silcock and Jorgensen are providing a traditional state bird reference in an open-access format on an online platform with stand-alone species accounts that we intend to update periodically.

For information on additional events in June, please contact the Wachiska office, 402.486.4846, with a detailed message, your name, and phone number.

Upcycle Your Congregation: Creative Ideas for Transforming Faith Communities

Engaging essays from Unitarian Universalist leaders in the field show creative ways to transform and "upcycle" the main ingredients of our congregations into something relevant, innovative, and new.

You don’t have to start from scratch to bring vitality to your congregation. You don’t have to take it all on at once. There are simple, yet profound ways you can use the riches you already have around you to create fun, relevance, vitality, and beauty in your religious community.' - from the

Testimony: The Transformative Power of Unitarian Universalism

A dynamic collection of personal stories from people whose lives have been dramatically changed by Unitarian Universalism. Some have returned from the brink of despair, others have found renewed purpose and discovered the saving power of community.

Together these vignettes paint a portrait of the real, felt impact of Unitarian Universalism. Readers can find a new appreciation for the ways Unitarian Universalism makes a tangible difference in the lives of real people who are struggling.
Full Moon Circle
Sunday, June 24 • 6:00PM

As we move to the time of Midsummer in the Wheel of the Year, our thoughts go to the changing balance of the seasons, of sunlight, and ourselves. On June 24, join the Order of the Red Grail for a guided meditation about finding balance and restoring the mindfulness in our spirits. The Order of the Red Grail Church of Transformational Wicca has been partnering with Lincoln Unitarian Church for over 20 years, offering spiritual celebration and comfort to all Earth-centered people in the Lincoln community. The Grail's Full Moon Circles are open to the public with discussion starting at 6:00PM, then ritual starting at 7:00PM. Following ritual we celebrate community with potluck and smiles. Check the UU calendar for Full Moon Circle dates. Learn more at www.orderoftheredgrail.org.

Showing up for Social Justice

Support local nonprofit organizations
May 31 is Give to Lincoln Day. Check out the comprehensive list of local nonprofits at www.givetolincoln.com. Now is the time to donate to your favorite one—or maybe find a new one you’d like to support. On the website, you can learn what each organization does, select ones of interest, and make your donations. You can donate online any time up to 11:59 PM on May 31. By donating now, your contribution will be increased because organizations will receive a proportional amount of matching funds.

You can also donate in person on May 31. Click the "About" tab on the website to learn more about donating in person.
