SHOW UP SO WE CAN “DEAL YOU IN”

Each year in early spring we hold our Annual Auction. Now is the time for everyone to get in the game and put their “cards” on the table in order for our church’s major fundraiser to be a success.

From Sunday, February 24 to March 24, you can “deal yourself in” by donating one or more of the following:

- Meal - This can be simple or elaborate, for a few or a crowd.
- Themed Basket - Create one on your own or provide the auction committee with the contents for them to assemble the basket.
- Event - Get a group of friends together and piece together an evening of fun around a theme of your choice.
- Service - Share a special knowledge or talent that you have.
- Gift Card - These are used for raffle prizes.
- Tasty Treat - Any item that you would find at a bake sale.

We will put all these donations together to create a terrific “deck” to be played starting at the Auction Kickoff Event on Saturday, April 6.

The big game will begin at 6:00PM with bidding, socializing and enjoying a light meal. We will have childcare available.

For all of this to be a success, we need everyone to “pitch in” donating and bidding. Please join in the fun and help us “ace” this one so we can help support the programming of our church.

10AM Sunday, March 10 - “Into the Wilderness”
There are times when our journey takes us to inhospitable places. While we often want to get back to lands of plenty quickly, what does it mean to spend time in the wilderness? As the season of Lent begins, what do we gain by letting go?
Worship Leader: Rev. Oscar Sinclair
Worship Associate: Becky Seth
Music: Binary (saxophone duet)
Share the Care: Green Sanctuary

10AM Sunday, March 17 - “What’s In a Name”
Prior to their merger, the Unitarians and Universalists nearly became the “Liberal Church of America.” How has the choice of “Unitarian Universalist Association” shaped the last 60 years of our faith’s journey?
Worship Leader: Rev. Oscar Sinclair
Worship Associate: Amy Birky

7PM Thursday, March 21 - Third Thursday - “Trust”
Worship Leader: Rev. Oscar Sinclair
Music: A Street Band

10AM Sunday, March 24 - Visiting Minister Rev. Ruth Carlton

10AM Sunday, March 31 - “Pilgrimage”
Paul Simon sings “For reasons I cannot explain/There’s some part of me wants to see/Graceland.” The impulse to pilgrimage, to journey to a place of significance, is part of many traditions, including ours. What does it mean to be a pilgrim? Where are you going?
Worship Leader: Rev. Oscar Sinclair
Worship Associate: Mary K Stillwell
Music: UCL Choir
At the start of the church year, rather than write a column from scratch, we reprinted Peter Scott’s list of “When to Call the Minister.” It’s a long list, ranging from “when a sympathetic ear might help” to “when you have a child to be dedicated, or someone close to you is critically ill” to “when you are mad at me.” One of the joys of my vocation is the range and depth of conversations I have with members and friends of this congregation. Many times a week congregants email, text, or call me to set up time to sit down and talk about what is on their minds.

A piece that comes with this is maintaining my calendar. Between my work schedule, Stacie’s work schedule, and the schedule of the 13 month old benevolent despot living in our home, keeping all the appropriate balls in the air at the right time can be a challenge. Something that I would like to try is a scheduling application called Calendly. Calendly gives anyone with a link to my scheduling website the ability to add appointments to my calendar (within parameters that I set ahead of time). These appointments are synched with my work calendar to automatically avoid double booking, and gives the person setting the meeting the freedom to pick when we are meeting.

When you visit www.calendly.com/revsinclair, the below images are the screens that appear. From the first (Fig. 1), you can pick which kind of meeting you would like to set up. In the example below, we are scheduling a 30 minute meeting to discuss a new adult education program.

Clicking on the “30 Minute Meeting” button gives you a list of open days (Fig. 2), and then times. For this example we’ll pick next Tuesday at 2:30.

Last, you are asked to fill in some detail (Fig. 3) - what your contact information is, and what the meeting is about. As soon as you click on “Schedule Event” the meeting pops onto my calendar, and a reminder email is sent to you the day before we meet.

I would encourage you to explore the website a little now. When I mentioned to colleagues that I was struggling to keep up with managing my schedule with a baby and an active congregation, this was their almost unanimous suggestion. Going forward, when you ask me if we can set up a meeting, I will ask you to go through this system. For our congregants who don’t use email or the internet, we’ll keep scheduling things as we have.

Thank you ahead of time for your willingness to try this new thing. My hope is that it will streamline some of the administrative parts of the job, so that we spend less time trying to find time we can meet and more time talking about all the reasons you might have to call the minister.

- Oscar
UU Pen Pals

The UU Pen Pals program (formerly known as Secret Friends) has been an event in our church community for many years. Many have asked, “Why the name change?” The decision to change the name was made because we do not want to encourage children to keep secrets. Pen Pals seemed to be an appropriate new name for our fun program of exchanging notes.

The UU Pen Pals program paired adults and youth using a mystery code name to exchange notes for four weeks before they finally met at a luncheon in mid-February. This intergenerational activity develops connections between youth and adults in our church that last long after our note-exchanging program ends.

Participants in UU Pen Pals this year said:

“I liked writing notes and getting notes from my pen pal.”

“This was so enjoyable and I’m so glad I participated this year. The lunch was just right and the activities were helpful too.”

“I liked having the luncheon and finally meeting my pen pal.”

“I like the emphasis now on writing to get to know one another.”

We hope more people consider being a UU Pen Pal next year!

With peace and gratitude,

Kim Ziemann, Acting Religious Growth Director

Partnering with Clinton

From Mark Weddleton

Members of our congregation are making a difference this semester at our partner school Clinton Elementary. Six of us share our time, energy and talents leading weekly after-school clubs: Cyn Monohon energizes students with Zumba; Sharad Seth with Computer Engineering; Jeanne Brooks and Pam Baker with Sewing; Mark Weddleton with Digital Animation; and Lindsay Bartlett, as the Director of Community and Learning for the Lincoln Children’s Museum, with ThinkBox!
Pathways To Membership

From Judy Hart

If you are interested in joining our church community or learning more about Unitarian Universalism, it is highly recommended that you attend the Pathways to Membership classes which are offered twice a year. These classes are a great way to better understand the rights and responsibilities of membership.

The Nuts & Bolts class, which focuses on our church governance, committee structure, management and ministry opportunities, is scheduled for 9:00AM to noon on Saturday, March 9.

The Chosen Faith class (focuses on a short history of Unitarian Universalism, our Lincoln church and a deeper discussion of the Principles of our faith) is scheduled for 9:00AM to noon on Saturday March 16.

The books A Chosen Faith and A Pocket Handbook to Unitarian Universalism are great resources for both of these classes. They are available in the church office for purchase or to borrow.

Please let Membership Associate Judy Hart know if you’d like to attend. If Saturdays are impossible for you and you are interested in the classes, let Judy know that alternative arrangements can be made to meet at another time.

Judy can be reached at 402.474.2206, membership@unitarianlincoln.org and at the Welcome Table most Sunday mornings.

Who We Are Oral History Project

We are people of open minds, loving hearts, and helping hands, who show up.

The "we" in our mission consists of many individuals, each with their own story of finding the Unitarian Church of Lincoln. In the spirit of NPR’s Story Corps Project, Membership Associate Judy Hart in collaboration with the Membership Umbrella and LGBT Welcoming Committees will be collecting our recorded stories each Sunday evening in April from 5:00PM to 9:00PM. Question prompts will be available in the April newsletter and sign up sheets will be in the Gallery following Sunday services in March.

If you have questions, please contact Judy Hart at membership@unitarianlincoln.org.

WORSHIP ARTS NEWS

Third Thursdays

Have you checked out our brand new Third Thursday service yet? If not you’re missing out on something very cool!

As of this writing we have just wrapped up our February service. The music, the message, the energy - it was all so positive. These services are an opportunity for us to do something very different than what you see on Sunday. We draw from secular music to craft a really unique experience that I think everyone should check out.

Not every Third Thursday service is music based! We’ve had meditative services, staged productions, and in March there will be a poetry service. If you have an idea for a non-traditional service that might fit, let us know!

The music based services are really special to me, and a lot of that has to do with the incredible members of the A Street Band that I am fortunate enough to direct. I’d like to give them a special shout-out! They are Lynn Beranek, Michele Dobsewicz, Keelin Geery-Zink, Roger Geery, Schuyler Geery-Zink, Reed Maly, and Stacie Sinclair.

Stay warm! All the best,
Bob Fuson, DMA
Music Director

BOT Nominee - Your Name Here?

From Karen Dienstbier

Our congregation will elect three new Trustees at the May congregational meeting. The Nominations Committee will sponsor "Just What Does the Board Do, Anyway?" an educational forum March 10 at 11:30AM. Current and past Board members will talk about their experiences and can answer questions you might have. Per our bylaws, there is a two year membership requirement to serve on the Board of Trustees. But that doesn’t mean that if you have been a church member for less than two years you shouldn’t attend. If you have an interest in knowing what happens at board meeting this is your chance to find out!

Here are some statements made by our current Board members about the joys and challenges of serving on our Board:

"I enjoy being on the board because of the interaction with the people and it broadens my perspective."

"Joy: The camaraderie of the group on the Board is refreshing and makes our work easier."

"Challenge: All the financial statements make my eyes glaze over at times. But I trust our Treasurer and Vice Treasurer to show us the big picture."

"It is a joy to work with this congregation and this board. People are enthusiastic. They care about our church. They step up in amazing ways."

"Working with Oscar Sinclair is a joy. He is always wise. He listens carefully. He helps find creative solutions. We are fortunate to have him as our minister."

If you have questions contact any member of the Nominations Committee, Karen Heafer, Larry Pelter, Kathy Disney, Kate McDougall or me.

You can reach me at kdien@allophone.com.

Hope to see you on March 10.
Paintings by Glenda Dietrich Moore will be featured at the Unitarian Church in the Gallery during the month of March. Glenda is a well-known Lincoln artist. She has this to say about her work: "These paintings reflect and celebrate my sense of the Spirit."

She uses mixed media (watercolor, acrylic and metallic inks) on paper. The use of the metallic paints and inks aims to depict that which belongs to the transcendent. She enjoys the surprises that happened in the creative and reflective process. She has sought to give visual expression to something personal, yet universal.

She has titled this show "Spirit Meditations" to allow for the viewer's own spiritual experiences, responses, and meditations. She asks you to slow down, inhale, and hear the Spirit's invitations.

Please bring a donation of non-perishable food and necessary paper goods. The Grail also accepts donations to support the Avalon Spiritual Retreat Center project.

The Red Grail has been partnering with the Unitarian Church of Lincoln for nearly 25 years (that’s a quarter of a century of support and collaboration), offering spiritual celebration and comfort to all Earth-centered people in the Lincoln community. Margaret Brown, in Lincoln for 60 years. Also from her Christmas card Margaret writes, "Every animal except the chipmunk have been in my yard. Even the Downey woodpecker and the red breasted nuthatch come to my bird feeder. The fox was yipping in my yard at 3:30AM last week. I’ve seen him at least four times this year. May the beauty of nature fill your heart with peace and joy throughout the year." Margaret Brown, 92 years young.

From Stephanie Geery-Zink

LUF needs you! Lincoln Unitarian Foundation is looking for a new committee member. Come join the group that stewards the funds that support the church’s building projects.

We especially need someone who has some financial, accounting and/or investing background, or who has leadership abilities (for example, a former church president or Board of Trustees member). This position would serve a three-year term, renewable for a second three-year term. LUF generally meets about four times a year, depending on projects.

Those interested can attend the next LUF meeting Sunday, March 3, at 11:30AM when we will discuss LUF’s visibility in the church, or the next general LUF meeting Sunday, April 14, at 11:30AM. Church members are always welcome to attend LUF meetings.
