New Things That We Are Launching

Third Thursday Worship

This fall we are launching a new worship service on the third Thursday of each month. On September 20, October 18, November 15, and December 20 all are invited to gather in the Sanctuary at 7:00PM. We are planning to use these services to try some experimental worship out, and to have a more informal setting than Sunday morning. The first of the series will be an evening of music and spoken word on September 20 with Rev. Oscar Sinclair, Dr. Bob Fuson and the A Street Band. Come see what we put together!

School Open House

Please join us for our first ever Sunday School Open House Sunday, September 2 after service. Everyone is welcome but particularly youth and their parents and guardians are invited to come see the space, meet the teachers, and check out the curriculum. Ashleigh Fuson - Chair of the Religious Growth and Learning Committee (also leader for Our Whole Lives Sex Education Program and Youth In Action) will also be there to help answer any questions about our classes. Chelsea Krafka - Director of Religious Education - will be in the Sanctuary leading a training for our assistants during that time but is always available for questions if you email: religiousgrowth@Unitarianlincoln.org

September 2 is an Ingathering Day where students will be doing a classroom blessing ritual. September 9 is the first day of fall classes for the year. We look forward to seeing you!

Realm

You may be aware that we have upgraded our database to a new online system called Realm. But did you know that you can now access the database when you need information you would have found in the directory before? Realm is really versatile and we are exploring ways of using it for other functions such as communication tools. This month we are rolling out the “customer interface.”

You should receive an email around the first of September that has a link for you to create an account in Realm. You will also have the option of downloading the app to your smart phone or Android. Once you have set up your login name and password you will be able to go to www.onrealm.org and see your profile. You will be able to make changes to your phone number, email and street address. You will be able to see your own giving status (but not others).
A Month of Sundays
10:00AM at 6300 A Street
Unitarian Church of Lincoln

Sunday, September 2 - “A Vision of Shared Ministry”

As we begin this year together, we pause to consider what ‘big question’ will define the year. What is the ministry that we are called to do, together?

Worship Leader: Rev. Oscar Sinclair
Worship Associate: KK Munson

Sunday, September 9 - “Opening the Circle”

Small group ministry is a model for how we can engage with each other’s spiritual journeys in an intentional, deep way. This Sunday we’ll talk about our Open Circle groups, and you’ll have the opportunity to join a group for the year.

Worship Leader: Rev. Oscar Sinclair
Worship Associate: LauraLee Woodruff
Music: Woodwind Quintet

Sunday, September 16 - “Be Thou My Vision”

Quality worship is not just about the words that we say. We can experience the divine in our lives in almost infinite ways, so too should worship engage our whole selves, the whole of our senses.

Worship Leader: Rev. Oscar Sinclair
Worship Associate: Sändra Washington

Sunday, September 23 - “Emily, George and Fred”

In our Six Sources we talk about a number of sources upon which our current practice is based. I’d like to discuss my personal Fab Four of prophetic people.

Worship Leader: Jamie Radcliffe
Worship Associate: Mary K. Stillwell
Share the Plate: CLIA (Center for Legal Immigration Assistance)

Sunday, September 30 - “But Trusts the Dawning Future More”

Last June, over 60 members of the Unitarian Church of Lincoln traveled to Kansas City to participate in the Unitarian Universalist Association’s annual General Assembly. This week we will hear from some of those members, and look ahead to what comes next for our faith.

Worship Leader: Rev. Oscar Sinclair
Worship Associate: Christine Starr Davis
“When To Call The Minister” has been recreated and revised, attributed and mis-attributed over the years, as things in newsletters often are. Universalist minister Peter Lee Scott wrote the original for the Elm City Universalist Church in New Haven, CT in 1957. Since then it’s become a tradition with some ministers to republish it at the beginning of a church year:

When to Call the Minister?

When you haven’t met me yet, but would like to.
When you have problems to discuss—about anything.
When a sympathetic ear might help.
When you’re going in the hospital or know someone else who is.
When someone close to you dies or is critically ill.
When you’re planning to be married, or might need to be.
When you return from vacation.
When your daughter graduates from college.
When you have a child to be dedicated.
When you’re pregnant but wish you weren’t.
When you’ve been arrested, or ought to be.
When you want to learn more about Unitarian Universalism.
When you’re scared.
When you’d like to make a bequest to the church.
When your son gets a big promotion.

When you’re considering joining the congregation.
When you’d like to show us what a good cook you are!
When a friend of yours wants to know more about our faith.
When you have suggestions about the programs for the church.
When you have suggestions for a sermon or about the worship services.
When you’d like to help with committee work or congregational activities.
When you want to discuss community issues or would like my involvement.
When you’re mad at me.
When you’d like to talk religion with me.

As we begin this church year together, don’t hesitate to reach out. In 1957 Rev. Scott wrote using the language of his time. In 2018 call me, yes, but also email me, text me, Facebook message me. If you are feeling very particular, we can also find a way to use a messenger pigeon.

We’ve spent the last year getting to know each other. As we start into our second year of shared ministry, I look forward to building on that work and seeing just where we will go as a community.

Rev. Oscar
starting the church year
I am so excited for this next church year! Our theme for the Sunday School curriculum this year is ‘Peace and Justice.’ We have INCREDIBLE lesson plans in place for our young UUs to become the next generation of movers and shakers. By the time you are reading this column, our trainings will be well under way.

Between August and September, I lead around 7-10 trainings for various aspects of our program. Our adults are well prepared to handle anything that may arise on Sunday mornings. Beyond going over the nuts and bolts and other logistics of our program, we also talk about how teaching is a spiritual practice. This year, I asked the volunteers to think of blessings which they would like to bestow upon our young people. Look in next month’s newsletter to see these blessings.

Even though the trainings are under way - we still need volunteers. We often have people drop out mid-year (life happens!) and we are always in need of substitutes. Please let me know if you are willing and able to help out.

Peace, Faith and Love,
Chelsea Kafka

exciting music news!
Hello from the music side of the Unitarian Church of Lincoln!

We have continued our mission of bringing in a variety of guests on Sunday and trying a few new things. These include the previous jazz service and the upcoming Thursday music based service. There are some very exciting things happening as we get into winter, and I can’t wait to share them with you!

The choir is, as of this writing, prepping for Water Communion with our very special guest the Rev. Kimberley Debus. She will be hosting a workshop for the worship cluster on Saturday, and has selected some very nice music for us to sing. If any of you were at General Assembly in KC some of it will sound familiar.

An ongoing project that I started over the summer is making the music room downstairs a nicer and more usable space. To that end, a few things have been moved around and more have been moved to storage. If you are looking for something that you think might have been in there at some point, please contact me. I may be able to point you in the right direction.

I look forward to an exciting church year filled with great music!

All the best,
Dr. Bob Fuson, Interim Music Coordinator
Notes from the Board

From Linda Brown

I just spent a weekend with the wonderful people you elected to the Board of the Unitarian Church of Lincoln. At our retreat, we grappled with the elements of trust, using a video entitled Super Soul Sessions: The Anatomy of Trust from BreneBrown.com

Oscar helped us consider our personal spiritual practices, and what our spiritual practice, as a board, might be. We started a conversation of what our decisions might look like, if we tested them, by asking if they are "mission-driven." The building task force considered both the mission and our "big idea of partnering" when it developed the plan of how we give space to the outside community. See policy at http://www.unitarianlincoln.org/our-leaders.html. We want to move deeper in the "big idea of partnering." What are the big questions we need to consider? We started using a wonderful new board training resource from the Unitarian Universalist Association, https://www.uua.org/management/board-training.

In addition to the retreat, the board is starting work on creating the policies, referred to in the revised by-laws. One of these refers to a policy on insurance, which after its development will guide the work of the administrative staff. This time around, because we did not have such a policy in place, we needed to consider insurance at the August Board meeting. We decided to pay for "replacement cost" insurance of $2.4 million dollars with a $1,000 deductible.

Create a Pledge Match Fund?

Would you be able to help create a "match fund" as incentive to encourage people to increase their pledge to 3% of gross pay? For the last two years, I have challenged people to increase their pledges to the 3% mark by offering $5,000 (above my 3% pledge) to match the amount of increase in pledges of those who state that they are raising their pledges to 3%. Both years, the whole $5,000 was matched! That money essentially doubled the value for the people offering those increases. This year, even though I am not offering that incentive to the pledge campaign, I still think it is valuable. If you would be interested in contributing to a "match fund" (over and above your 3% pledge), please contact Vice Treasurer and Pledge Drive Chair, Theresa Forsman, at theresalforsman@gmail.com. Many thanks! Linda R. Brown, President of the Board.

UUA Bookstore Pick of the Month

THEY TAKE OUR JOBS!

Revised and expanded edition of the groundbreaking book that demystifies twenty-one of the most widespread myths and beliefs about immigrants and immigration.

In "They Take Our Jobs!" Aviva Chomsky challenges the underlying assumptions that fuel misinformed claims about immigrants, radically altering our notions of citizenship, discrimination, and US history. Since it was first published, many of the same myths about immigration, such as "immigrants take American jobs," "immigrants don't pay taxes," and "immigrants increase crime," continue to be perpetuated and used to promote aggressive anti-immigration policies. In a new introduction, Chomsky reflects on the events of the past ten years. She analyzes declining Mexican immigration patterns, illuminates Mexico’s little-known Southern Border Program and assesses Barack Obama’s complicated legacy as "deporter-in-chief," which, Chomsky argues, laid the groundwork for Donald Trump’s anti-immigrant racism.

Matching Funds For Planned Gifts
From Gene Hanlon, LUF

The Lincoln Unitarian Foundation Committee has learned that the National Unitarian Universalist Association, in conjunction with the UU Congregation at Shelter Rock in Manhasset, NY, has allocated funds to match those funds donated to local congregations and national UUA programs through planned giving in 2018. The effort is called “Wake Now Our Vision Collaborative Campaign Legacy Challenge.” Any planned gifts to the Lincoln Unitarian Foundation will ensure the maintenance and enhancement of our building and property in the long term.

Planned giving can take many forms. Designating a portion of your estate to the Lincoln Unitarian Church in your will or living trust, naming the Unitarian Church of Lincoln as a beneficiary of a life insurance policy or designations on retirement accounts and other planned gifts are eligible for this match. A total of $1 million in matching funds is available nationally in 2018. UU congregations can receive a 10% match total of $10,000 for planned gifts made in 2018. Any planned giving actions taken since January 1, 2018, are eligible for these matching funds.

Please consider making planned gifts to the Unitarian Church of Lincoln to continue progressive religious thought in Lincoln for years to come. Other donations that also qualify for the match may be made to the Unitarian Universalist Association and other programs such as the Unitarian Universalist Service Committee, Meadville Lombard Theological School, Starr King School for Ministry, or the Unitarian Universalist Ministers Association. For more information on the Lincoln Unitarian Foundation, planned giving and the matching program, contact Alan Worth at AtollAlan@aol.com or visit the Lincoln Unitarian Foundation table after service.

Coffee Volunteer Coordinator Needed or We WON’T HAVE IT

To ensure we have our coffee each week, we need a person to step up and be the Coordinator for the Coffee Volunteers. This person is not responsible for making the coffee, but for securing a team or group of friends for each Sunday. We currently do not have two Sundays in September covered. Who will be our COFFEE HERO and serve in this meaningful and important way?

UU Meditation Sangha

UU Meditation Sangha will resume regular second and fourth Wednesday gatherings this month. We start to gather at 7:00PM in the music room on the lower level of the church and first meditation begins at 7:15PM. Beginners are welcome! Please contact LauraLee Woodruff for additional information: holybear47@gmail.com

Do you have a TSHIRT yet?

If you do not have a Unitarian Church of Lincoln Tshirt yet it is not too late! The Office DAZZLERS will be on hand to sell you one each Sunday this month. They are $10. We have youth sizes and adult sizes M - 2X. If you ordered a shirt at the end of July, you shirt(s) are on the ledge past the ministers office at the top of the stairs with your name on it.
Share the Plate - Center for Legal Immigration Assistance

Sunday, September 23

CLIA, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit corporation, is the primary provider of direct legal assistance to immigrants and refugees in the Lincoln area, and to a lesser extent greater Nebraska, since 2001. Among the matters in which CLIA provides assistance are permanent resident alien status (green cards), citizenship (naturalization) applications, support for victims of abuse, and many other proceedings. In short, CLIA helps immigrants and refugees become fully documented and in compliance with the law. Last year CLIA assisted over 350 clients. CLIA charges reduced fees on a sliding fee basis depending upon the ability to pay.

There is a significant waiting line for CLIA’s services because CLIA has limited professional staff (two full time lawyers and one Board of Immigration Appeals (BIA) accredited staff member) and limited financial resources. The need for CLIA's services has recently become even greater with the increased deportation activity by the federal government and the uncertain political climate. Therefore, CLIA is making a major effort to increase its funding from all possible sources and to recruit volunteers where practical in order to meet this greater need for its services. CLIA needs the help of churches, businesses and individuals in the community in order to fulfill its important mission.

Membership Umbrella

We are intentional about ‘hospitality’ in our church and to that end we offer a hospitality focused workshop/training twice a year. Everyone interested in Sunday morning activities (greeting, ushering, coffee making, safety or AV) is invited to attend this hospitality training either Friday evening September 7 from 6:00PM to 8:00PM or Saturday morning September 8 from 9:00AM to Noon. Even if you’ve been a greeter or an usher for years, it never hurts to check in and see if anything has changed. The same material will be covered at both workshops, although more time is spent with AV at the Saturday morning gathering. This training is interactive and fun! Snacks will be served at both workshops.

Let Membership Associate Judy Hart know if you’d like to attend. Judy can be reached at 402.474.2206, membership@unitarianlincoln.org and at the Welcome Table most Sunday mornings.

Photography is a meditative spiritual practice for me. I am inspired by the colors and intricacies of nature, and thus, I often use a macro setting on the camera to be as close to my subject as possible. I frequently spend hours in the garden or at the lake looking for small wonders. I love the patience and stillness required to photograph the shimmer on a dragonfly’s wings, or the light which can be caught on the softness of a flower’s petal. I am fascinated by shadows, light, and texture. Photography enriches my sense of connection to the natural world. My photos remind me to be continuously grateful for the beauty that surrounds me.
Green Corner

Coming Soon - September 8 - Rise for Climate, Jobs, & Justice

The Global Climate Action Summit is coming to San Francisco. A march on September 8 will kick off the events. The Peoples Climate Movement will bring tens of thousands of people across the country into the streets, town halls, and community forums. Joined by partners around the world, we will demand bold action on climate, jobs, and justice. Creative actions are planned in 322 cities across 62 countries. (www.350.org)

The Summit (September 12-14) will bring together government leaders (local, regional, national) with advocacy organizations, businesses, innovators, investors, scientists, and students. The goal is to accelerate cooperative climate actions across the globe. Real climate leadership rises from the Grassroots up.

The UUA is Actively Involved

From the UUA Ministry for Earth: movements and communities will converge all over the world to Rise for Climate, Jobs, & Justice in a moving demonstration of the breadth and depth of the climate movement, educating voters about the issues, all to ensure that elected and private sector leaders make action on climate a priority. The UU Ministry for Earth will be in San Francisco representing us.

Announcement - Closer to Home

The third Elders for the Earth gathering at Mahoney State Park is scheduled for October 7-9, 2018. Register online at elders4theearth.com.

Wachiska Events this Month

PROGRAM

Thursday, September 13 • 7:00PM • 6300 A Street
Topic: "Saline Wetlands: Beyond the Tiger Beetle" with Ethan Freese

FIELD TRIP

Sunday, September 9 • 8:30AM • Fontenelle Forest in Bellevue, led by John Carlini

We will check out autumn birds and different plumage this time of year. We’ll meet in the wetlands parking lot at the east end of Gifford Road in Bellevue. From I-80, take exit 439 and Highway 370 east to Bellevue. Turn north on Fort Crook Road and travel to Child’s Road where you’ll turn and drive east until it turns into Gifford Road. Bring a water bottle, insect repellent, and binoculars if you have them. A pay station is available and entry fee for those who aren’t Fontenelle Forest members is $11/adult and $10/senior (62 and older.) The public is welcome. If you have questions, call John at 402.475.7275.

Making Leadership a Priority

September 9 • 11:30AM • Gathering Place

Focused and intentional leadership development is crucial for our church to thrive and grow. If you believe this and want to be a part of making it happen, please come to the Leadership Development Committee meeting. Sunday Agenda items will include scheduling a personal leadership development workshop before the end of calendar year and the possibility of offering a series of classes/meetings based on Harvest the Power or other UUA based resource material. If you have any questions, contact Kathy Disney at kedisney@hotmail.com or at 402.560.0358.
Showing up for Social Justice
This month we:
• Participated in the Nebraskans for Alternatives to the Death Penalty daily vigils against the execution
• Sent 22 letters for UUSJ to deliver to Senators Fischer and Sasse urging them to protect SNAP
• Signed onto Appleseed’s letter urging our Congressional representatives to update immigration laws to prevent future raids like the recent ones in Nebraska

More highlights from social justice-related sessions at GA:
1) #MeToo: Called to Challenge Systemic Patriarchy—UUs have faced internal MeToo problems. At all levels, there must be transparency about the process, fairness, and safety for the victim.
2) Actions of immediate witness: ending family separation and detention of asylum seekers, ending prisons for profit, solidarity now with indigenous water protectors
3) Congregational study issue: Undoing Intersectional White Supremacy
4) Suggestions for social justice advocacy from other churches: Every two years identify a social justice issue for the congregation to study/take action on. Have several social justice teams and ask members to join a team of their choice at a congregational meeting.

Social Justice Forum
ACLU Smart Justice
September 4 • 7:00PM
Katrina Thomas and Allie Curttright from the ACLU’s Smart Justice Project will join us for the forum from 7:00PM to 7:30PM. This group was the recipient of Share the Plate in August. All are welcome to join us to learn about this project and then leave or join us for the business portion of the meeting.

Pathways to Membership Classes
Are you interested in joining our church community or learning more about Unitarian Universalism? Consider attending one or both of our upcoming Pathways to Membership classes to better understand the rights and responsibilities of membership. Both classes meet at church with the Nuts & Bolts class (focusing on our church governance, committee structure, management and ministry opportunities) scheduled for 9:00AM to Noon on Saturday, October 13 and A Chosen Faith class (focusing on a short history of Unitarian Universalism, our Lincoln church and a deeper discussion of the Principles of our faith) meeting at 9:00AM to Noon on Saturday October 20.

Let Membership Associate Judy Hart know if you’d like to attend or if you’d rather attend these classes on a weekday evening. Judy can be reached at 402.474.2206, membership@unitarianlincoln.org and at the Welcome Table most Sunday mornings.

Save the Date: Sorensen Lecture
October 14 • UCL Auditorium
Lecia Brooks from the Southern Poverty Law Center will be the Sorensen Lecturer for 2018. Her topic will be "A Radicalized Nation: How Do We Respond?" Danielle Conrad from ACLU Nebraska will introduce Lecia and have a dialogue with her after she speaks.

Lecia leads the Southern Poverty Law Center’s outreach efforts on key initiatives and social justice issues. She also serves as director of the Civil Rights Memorial Center in Montgomery, Alabama, an interpretive center designed to provide visitors to the Civil Rights Memorial with a deeper understanding of the civil rights movement. She joined the SPLC staff in 2004.
